CHRISTMAS BOAT PARADE...

Edrea and committee are working on having another boat parade trip this year. This next Parade of Lights will be its 100th celebration, so it should be awesome.

ELECTION OF A SQ D OFFICERS — 2008/2009...

The elections of officers were held on February 24 at the general meeting. Delegates may nominate themselves. If they nominate someone else, that person should be present at the February meeting. If the person cannot be present at the meeting, there needs to be a written statement from the person that they will accept the position. Also, a short bio needs to be done.

HIGH FLYERS...

If you plan on going along with the High Flyers to this years National Convention, please let Florence know ASAP, as they have to turn in the left over rooms by March 15. A block of rooms are reserved, so all can be together.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

The February dance was "chocolate delights." They were real good! Ken Bower and Pam Post did the honors in calling. There were 20 squares dancing. The Orange Coast Lariats, Icabods and Chevron Squares had visitations with us. It was a very good dance.

Congratulations to Gary Brooks and Lynda Einstein, who represented our Club at the Sweetheart Ball in Hawthorne. It was a big dance with 51 squares. We had 14 club members attending. Bill Gipson was one of the callers. There was a sea of red and white dancing. Florence Bell was crowned Sweetheart of the Ball for all her dedicated square dance work.

We would encourage more club members to come out to the Club Dances and/or classes. Come out and join us!
