Visitations:

Thanks to all who have attended our visitations. Even though we do not always have 16 dancers, we have gotten our banners back. Visiting other clubs and dancing to others callers can be fun so please check our upcoming visitation schedules and set aside at least one date that you can attend.

So far this summer, we have danced at the Orange County Fair, the Cypress Festival and a few clubs including the Grin 'N' Squares of El Monte-some we have car pooled to from the dance center.

A Sq D:

As you read this, the A sq D Roundup in Oxnard will either be taking place or be over with. Our club needs to reschedule the Sept club dance so that we as a group might attend the annual Oxnard event. Most of the A Sq D events have taken place and the clubs need to concentrate on their new classes and attracting new members.

Our condolences go out to the Joe Griffith family who lost his battle with cancer in early August. Joe was a friend to a lot of us and had been a dancer for a long time. Be well and have a great month. Fall is fast approaching and winter and holiday time is right around the corner.

The Eagle’s Cry Stephan Roehrich

President—(714)670-1932

I don’t think that they come much better than Buddy Weaver, he was great at our Aug dance. There may be better callers but he was sure fun to dance to as was Eileen Silva on the rounds.

I’d like to thank the kitchen help, treasurers and all of you that are helping to make our dances a big success—you are doing a great job.

Our Oct 7th will be called by Dan Nordbye and cued by Eileen Silvia.

Board meetings start at 5:30 pm, before the dance.
